CFW forums on Salary Metrics at UCSC --please attend!

Colleagues - several of our SCFA members have urged that we bring this forum to the attention of members. You have already received notices about it from the Senate CFW, but we are resending it as a service to our members concerning this important issue.

--from the SCFA Board

Here's the notice from CFW - note there are two forums, one today and one tomorrow.

The two forums will cover the same content, but with slightly different focus, as described below.

Forum 1: New Metrics for Faculty Advancement and Salary: Overview and Implications This presentation will provide an overview that focuses on the significance of the metrics, preliminary conclusions, and broader implications. Methodological issues will be discussed only briefly, with more detailed questions and answers directed toward the second forum. Date: Thursday, March 15 Time: 4:00-5:45 Location: Second Stage, Theater Arts (opposite Main Stage) Presenter: Suresh Lodha Facilitator: Elizabeth Abrams Participation from additional CFW members during Q&A: Noriko Aso, Gina Langhout

Forum 2: New Metrics for Faculty Advancement and Salary: Methodology

This presentation will summarize the significance of the metrics, preliminary conclusions, and broader implications, but devote more time to addressing questions on the methodology of the study. Date: Friday, March 16 Time: 3:30-5:30 Location: E2-180 Presenter: Abel Rodriguez Facilitator: Kimberly Lau Participation from additional CFW members during Q&A: Suresh Lodha
